A FLAVOUR OF THE BLESSING OF THE PARISH PASTORAL CENTRE

Last Sunday we had a fantastic celebration of the blessing of our Pastoral Centre. Below is an extract from Archbishop Martin's homily and next week we will have acknowledgments and more pictures of the event.

The Gospel reading we have heard tells us something about how we, the community of the believers in Jesus Christ, should bring the message of God's caring mercy to the world around us, in to our homes and families, into our towns and our society.

In many ways this is one of the purposes of your new Parish Centre which we bless this afternoon. A Parish Centre is much more than a place where people socialize after Mass; it must become a true bridge between worship and the wider life of the parishioners and the society we belong to. I congratulate all those who were responsible for this initiative and those who planned it, those who worked on its completion and those who will serve in its administration and daily activities.
